

The World Bank Art Program and World Bank Family Network invite you to the first World Bank Group

FAMILY ARTS SCIENCE FESTIVAL

Saturday April 17, 2010
(2 pm to 5 pm)

World Bank Main Complex Atrium

For children of the World Bank Group (ages 2-17) with their parents and winners of DC Public School's art contest "Wash your Hands!". The festival is not open to the general public.

Register for activities by April 14

Applaud the WBFN children and their new art exhibition

With scientists and inventors, see the invisible germs around us

Help musicians and painters finish their creations

Make your original artwork

Enter the first World Bank video competition Art & Development (ages 12-17)

The Family Festival is organized by the World Bank's Art Program and Family Network in collaboration with Community Outreach, Operational Communications, Spark!Lab of The Lemelson Center at the Smithsonian's National Museum of American History, The National Science Resources Center,)musica(aperta and Puppet-Dance Productions.

For more information contact WBFN at 202 473-8751
and familynetwork@worldbank.org
Download registration form and waiver at www.wbfn.org