

The World Bank Family Network

Invites you to the art exhibition

End of Summer

Sanja Pešić-Ostojić

November 7-21, 2018

WBFN Gallery
701 18th Street NW, Suite J2-030
Washington DC 20006

Opening Reception

November 7th

2 - 4 PM

“... To what world do these scenes, imaginary landscapes, belong to? What time do they belong to: historical, mythic, religious, or are they placed outside the common material world and its time? Despite possible analogies and motifs in the history of painting, here we are dealing with a poetic transcription of personal experience of a dream or a desire into a theme that concerns us all.”

- Art Critic Sreto Bošnjak

WORLD BANK
FAMILY NETWORK

Sanja Pešić-Ostojić was born in Belgrade, Serbia

- 1995 - Graduated from the Academy of Fine Arts in Belgrade
- 1995 - Became a member of ULUS (The Association of Visual Artist of Serbia)
- 1998 - MA degree in Fine Arts in the class of professor Andjelka Bojović

Solo Exhibitions

- 1994 - Gallery of International Press Center, Belgrade
- 1995 - Yugoslav Art Gallery Andrićev Venac
- 1998 - Gallery of Faculty of Fine Arts, Belgrade
- 2002 - Gallery The House of Djura Jaksić
- 2006 - Gallery Božidar Adžija
- 2009 - Arts Development Assistance Fund, Kiev, Ukraine
- 2013 - Serbian Embassy, Washington DC, USA

sanyapo@hotmail.com

WORLD BANK
FAMILY NETWORK