

International Women's Day

Co-Parenting After Separation: Navigating Through Difficult Relationships

Wednesday, March 11, 2020 | 12:30pm-2:00pm | J 1-050

International Women's Day (March 8) is a global day celebrating the social, economic, cultural and political achievements of women. In honor of International Women's Day, the WBG is having several events to highlight key issues that women face around the world. This panel presentation consists of a discussion focusing on co-parenting after separation and strategies to navigate through difficult relationships, including domestic abuse.

Opening Remarks:

Stuart Fisher, Senior Psychologist, Counseling Unit, HSD

Panelists:

- Michelle Dodge, Owner, JMD Counseling and Therapeutic Services, LLC
- Deborah Goelman, Consultant, Domestic Violence Legal Empowerment and Appeals Project
- Stephanie Asare-Nti, Clinician, HSD DAPP Program
- Tanya Sisler, Staff Association Staff Relations Counselor and SPIN Co-Chair

Moderator:

- Makon Fardis, Psychological Counselor, Counseling Unit, HSD

Open to: WBG, IMF, and IDB staff, spouses, domestic partners and family members.

Light lunch will be served.

J Building - World Bank Group
701 18th ST NW, Washington, DC 20006
IDB and external guests RSVP:
DAPPEvents@WorldBankGroup.org

In Partnership with: WBG/IMF Health & Safety Directorate (HSD), Domestic Abuse Prevention Program (DAPP), Staff Association (WBGSA), and the SA's Single Parent Inclusion Network (SPIN) Working Group.

