

The information contained in this document have been obtained and derived from WBFN members that is not affiliated with the World Bank Group agencies the “World Bank Group”) or the World Bank Family Network (“WBFN”). The information is provided solely for informational purposes based on personal experiences, knowledge and preferences of the WBFN members, and should not in any way be construed as an advice, recommendation or endorsement of WBFN or the World Bank Group. Readers are encouraged to conduct their own research and due diligence and seek independent recommendations in deciding which service provider is best suited for their needs.

WBGFN makes no warranty, express or implied, as to its accuracy, completeness or timeliness or as to the results to be obtained through the use of information listed in this document. Reliance upon any information hereof shall be entirely at the reader’s own risk. In no event shall WBGFN or its employees be liable from any direct, indirect, incidental, special or consequential damages in connection with the use of any information contained herein.

International School

State Department's compilation of overseas Schools Offering Support to Children with Special Needs 2017-2018	The information is self-reported, is taken verbatim from submitted forms, may change from year-to-year, and is by no means conclusive or all-inclusive as school administrators may not report offering a special needs program. In addition, what is available one year may not be the following year due to staff changes. Therefore, the list is, by its very nature, incomplete and may not be reliable in some instances.	https://www.state.gov/wp-content/uploads/2019/08/2017-Special-Needs-List.pdf
---	--	---